e2020, Inc., Honored with Bronze Best Practices For Distance Learning Programming Award

Scottsdale, Ariz. (May 4, 2011) – The United States Distance Learning Association (USDLA) has recognized e2020, Inc., with a 2011 International Distance Learning Award. The USDLA Awards acknowledge major accomplishments in distance learning, highlighting those distance learning instructors, programs and professionals who have achieved and demonstrated extraordinary results through the use of online, videoconferencing, satellite and blended learning delivery technologies.

The prestigious international awards are presented to organizations and individuals engaged in the development and delivery of distance learning programs and include awards for 21st Century Best Practice, Best Practice for Distance Learning Programming, Excellence in Distance Learning Teaching, Outstanding Leadership by an Individual, Hall of Fame and Eagle Awards.

“Being honored by USDLA for our eLearning solutions solidifies our dedication to providing innovative and robust virtual learning solutions to schools and districts,” said Michael Humphrey, president of e2020, Inc. “We are proud to be a Bronze Best Practice for Distance Learning Programming Award winner and will strive to achieve Platinum status next year.”

“As a premier organization for the distance learning profession, we honor e2020, Inc., as an industry leader,” said Dr. John G. Flores, executive director of USDLA. “e2020, Inc., has raised the bar of excellence and we are truly honored by its contributions to the distance learning industry.”
